COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrappers and attest its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the search light of investigation turned fully upon his formulæ, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great, blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-on-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

RACE TRACK INVESTMENTS.

Those persons interested in horse-racing in New York State have called attention to the fact that many millions of dollars are involved in the issue now before the legislature of that State. The following statistics have been prepared and presented to members of the legislature in order that they may count the cost of abolishing racing: Estimated selling value of real estate holdings of the Coney Island Jockey Club, Brooklyn Jockey Club, Brighton Beach Racing Association, Queens County Jockey Club, Metropolitan Jockey Club, West Chester Racing Association and Empire City Racing Association $4,800,000; racing associations now taxed on $2,400,000 in realty holdings; estimated number of breeders affected, including all states raising thoroughbreds, 3,000; estimated values of their property, including realty holdings, buildings and horses, $75,000,000; estimated number of employes dependent upon breeding farms for livelihood, 25,000; stables in training for 1908, 1500; value of animals and property (estimated) $20,000,000; number of employes, (estimated) 15,000; disbursements annually by racing stables in Metropolitan circuit for feed and farmers' supplies, $9,000,000; employes of local racing associations, 2,000; employes of caterers to local associations, 500; bookmakers and employes affected, 3,000; annual expenditures in New York city and vicinity by patrons of racing, excluding all sums employed in making wagers (estimated), $25,000,000; amount paid annually for railroad fares (minimum estimate), $400,000; train crews to be unemployed by withdrawal of service (estimated) ten daily; probable depreciation of values, should the bills have the effect predicted, not less than fifty per cent. within a year; loss to small merchants, whose livelihood depends upon race track patronage, estimated at $1,000,000; loss to Sheephead Bay, Gravesend and Brighton for maintenance of owners, trainers and stable employes, annually, $500,000. In the above no effort is made to compute the possible loss at Saratoga.

SHAH FEARS FOR HIS GEMS.

The Shah of Shahs, the Light of the Orient, has taken extraordinary precautions to safeguard his wonderful collections of jewels, estimated to be worth $85,000,000.

Some American travelers in Teheran were indiscreet enough to talk openly about the wonderful treasures hidden in the Shah's vaults. The frank Americans were wondering, admiring, not conspiring. But being Americans, their conversation was reported to His Majesty, who was seized with the notion that there was a plot on foot to rob him of his jewels.

Immediately he had deeper and even more secure vaults dug. The iron doors of the passages leading to the vaults have ingenious electrical contrivances which, when set, not only will send an alarm to the Palace Guard, put will discharge explosive enough to destroy an army of robbers. Night and day a score of picked men guard the jewel vaults—cruel, ruthless mountaineers, who await only the order to kill.

The Shah's greatest treasure is a sword, the hilt and scabbard of which are encrusted with diamonds of marvelous size and brilliancy, worth $1,500,000. The imperial crown contains a ruby which is regarded as the finest in the world. Such a one could not be bought for $750,000.

HAS TWO WIVES LIVING.

Henry Cook, a hotel man, confessed in the Hustings Court of Richmond yesterday morning to being the husband of two living women. On account of his age and infirmity, the man was given only three years in the penitentiary. After listening to the confession of the man, Miss Mae I. Conn, his first wife, collapsed in her chair. Cook also fainted when the court pronounced judgment. Cook was married to Miss Conn on August 16, 1905. He was subsequently married to Miss Lucile G. Early at Elizabeth City, N. C., on October 31, 1907. The last wife displayed no emotion. Both women appeared as witnesses for the commonwealth.

Henry Cook formerly lived in this city where he had many friends.

HIGH PRICED PROPERTY.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia value the land and improvements in that section of the city from 3rd street to 15th street and from Pennsylvania avenue northwest to B street southwest at "about $19,300,000." This estimate, made by the commissioners, was included in a report made to Vice President Fairbanks in response to the Senate resolution of February 21 directing the commissioners to report the price of land and all improvements within the boundaries mentioned. This territory, because of its location, has been strongly advocated as the site for an extension of the Mall upon which to erect a number of government buildings, and its purchase is provided for in the Heyburn bill now pending in Congress.

There is nothing better than Kodol for dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, belching of gas and nervous headache. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

DISGUSTED WITH GAY KING.

Nothing which that gay old Lothario, King Leopold, has ever done before has so excited the disgust and resentment of his long-suffering subjects as his attachment for the gardener's daughter he has raised to the dignity of Baroness Vaughan. Their indignation is in no wise lessened by the fact that he is said to have married her morganatically; nor by the other fact that she is the mother of a babe whom Leopold hopes to make Emperor of the Congo.

The Belgians argue that at his age of 73, he might very well live cleanly, or if that is impossible, he might at least make some effort to prevent his love affairs causing a public scandal. He makes no disguise of them, and within the last month, during his illness, it was well known that Baroness Vaughan was living in the royal palace in the guise of a nurse. She has now returned to her chateau near Paris.

The king unquestionably is a wreck. He walks as if he had locomotor ataxia, and he is so feeble that the slightest cold confines him to his bed.

SEIZED A THOUSAND DOLLARS.

While Michael E. Hogan was standing in the public banking room of the Mercantile Trust Company in St. Louis Monday, Frank Sellick, of New York, a bookmaker's sheet-writer, it is charged, suddenly seized a roll of $1,000 from Hogan's overcoat pocket and ran, pushing aside men and women who stood in his path. He was captured on the steps of the bank, it is charged, while attempting to pass the money to a confederate. The confederate fled before the money reached his hands, and the crowd captured the money-snatcher. Sellick was fashionably attired and was wearing a number of diamonds. He had plenty of money in his pockets. Superintendent John Shea, of the Bertillon Bureau, identified the prisoner as Kid Burke, alias Fisher, known to the police of every large city in the United States and in Paris and London. Several pictures of Burke were found in the rogues' gallery. Mr. Hogan is president and principal owner of the bank at Altamont, Ill.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APR. 8, 1908.

THE growing bitterness among republicans over the presidential contest came to the surface in the Senate yesterday, when, as stated in the Gazette of that day, Senator Hale caused a hubbub by sharply criticising Secretary of War Taft during a vigorous onslaught on the growing extravagance in expenditure for the army. He denounced the alleged plans for a still further increase in the strength of the army, and declared that there was a constant pressure from the chiefs of the military establishment to make it bigger and bigger. For this he held the chief-of-staff more responsible than the Secretary of War, for the latter, the Senator remarked with withering sarcasm, probably did not know as much about the affairs of the War Department as his subordinate who acted as head of the department during the secretary's "frequent, prolonged and necessary" absences from the city. This deft insertion of the knife into Secretary Taft's candidacy gave great offense to some of the western Senators who are strong Taft men, and later in the afternoon Senator Burkett, of Nebraska, whose State is now receiving a campaign visit from the secretary, took Senator Hale to task for his remark. This precipitated a debate which, though conducted in strictly parliamentary form, showed more ugliness and illtemper than any other of the session. Senator Aldrich backed up Senator Hale in his criticism of the growing extravagance in appropriations, and declared there must be retrenchment unless the republican party wanted to meet defeat at the polls this fall. Mr. Hale's speech, however, was the most remarkable of the debate, considering that he is not only a republican, but virtually the floor leader of the majority. Mr. Hale is supposed to be a Taft man. That he merely wanted to attack Taft was shown by the fact that he dropped the mask when he had accomplished his purpose, withdrew the demand for action he had made, and left the chamber while the other Senators were still snarling.

THE republicans are hard at work trying to minimize the effects of the panic and the continued business depression. The panic was a complete reply to the fallacious statements in republican platforms and by republican organs and spellbinders that tariff protection produced prosperity. The fact that over a million men are out of work; that wages are falling and thousands of foreign wage earners are returning to their own country, is too glaring to be glossed over. Democrats have foretold this breakdown of the policy of protection, which for a time fostered a spurious prosperity for the trusts and corporations, with its accompanying high cost of living and of necessity high wages. But now so many people are suffering the republican party is trying to again deceive the voters by pretending to favor tariff revision or adjustment, "after election." The promises are, however, very vague and always accompanied by the declaration that the protective system must be preserved. It is pretty safe to predict that if the republican party is successful in electing the next president and a majority of the next Congress, that the trusts and tariff protected interests will again control the policy of the majority of the republican party on the tariff issue. Is it likely that campaign funds will be forthcoming from the trusts and corporations to accomplish such a result unless assurances are given by republican candidates for Congress that "the interests" will still be protected? As Senator Hanna said in substance in the debate on the admittance of the territories to statehood, platform promises are not intended to be binding if it is politically necessary not to keep them!

IN three states—Illinois, Nebraska and Wisconsin—the voters under a local option law yesterday voted on the saloon question. In Illinois the larger cities voted for the sale of liquor, while the towns in most cases voted against the saloons. In Nebraska prohibition made gains in the smaller towns, while the contest in Lincoln between the supporters of the restricted saloon and the prohibitionists was won by the former. The Germans of Wisconsin took full advantage of the local option law to reintroduce the saloon into most of the towns. With the cry of personal liberty, they carried practically everything before them.

EMMA GOLDMAN, the female anarchist, is in a serious predicament in Winnepeg, Manitoba, and, it is said, deportation to Russia stares her in the face. She is now on Canadian soil; the United States authorities decline to allow her to return to this country; Canada refuses to entertain her, and the officials say a journey to the land of her birth seems the only solution of the difficulty. Terra del Fuego would be a good place to send this woman whose blatant anarchistic deeds and utterances should not be tolerated in the United States.

THOSE who have not paid their poll taxes are reminded that they must do so not later than May 2d, if they wish to vote at the election on November 3rd.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Senator Martin has made a favorable report on the Daniel bill for the construction of a national boulevard from Washington to Mount Vernon.

The Gallinger-Goebel mail subsidy bill was given a knockout blow in the House today, when the postoffice committee, by a vote of 8 to 6 refused to report the bill to the House favorably. The only way the bill, already passed by the Senate, may now get before the House is to have the House discharge the committee. The defeat was a hard blow to ship advocates. The democratic vote against the measure was strengthened enough to beat it by certain republicans who voted against the administrations recommendation for the subsidy, their argument being that they could not afford to be put on the defensive anymore for "voting subsidies."

Two monster battleships, each to cost $6,000,000; ten torpedo boat destroyers, each to cost $800,000; eight submarine torpedo boats to cost a total of $3,500,000 and one sub-surface torpedo boat to cost $22,500 are the increased weapons of war carried in the naval appropriation bill which was formally reported to the House today by the committee on naval affairs. The bill makes appropriations that total $103,976,518 about $3,500,000 more than was carried in the last similar bill. Provision is made in the measure for the enlistment of six housand additional men. For arming and equipping the naval militia the appropriation is boosted to $100,000 in order to make the naval reserve more efficient.

The attorney general and the Department of Commerce and Labor will be compelled to tell the House why they have not prosecuted the alleged "paper trust" according to action taken by the House committee on judiciary today. The committee reported favorably the two resolutions introduced by Speaker Cannon, calling on the Department of Justice and Commerce and Labor to give this information.

President Roosevelt has written a letter to the attorney general instructing him to proceed against the railroads of the South which do not furnish equal accommodations for negroes in the "jim crow" cars that they do in the coaches provided for whites. The president had received a number of complaints from colored organizations and individuals in the South protesting against their treatment in this regard. In his letter the president says: "The Interstate Commerce Commission has taken what is unquestionably the right ground; that where separate accommodations are provided for white and colored passengers, the accommodations for colored passengers shall be as good as those furnished o white passengers for the same money. In other words, while there is nothing in the law which forbids separate accommodations, these accommodations must be equal."

Japan and America joined today in doing honor to the late Durham W. Stevens, adviser to the Japanese government, who was assssinated in San Francisco, at his funeral here. The ceremonies were under the auspices of the Japanese Ambassador at the direction of his government. American officials, headed by Secretary of State Root, were prominent in the obsequies. Brief services were held over the body at the residence of the late diplomat's sister, Mrs. Joseph L. Porter, and at St. John's Episcopal Church at 2 p. m. Burial followed in Oak Hill Cemetery. President Roosevelt sent a very handsome floral piece to be laid upon the coffin of Mr. Stevens.

How much ice will the labor vote cut next fall? Secretary Taft isn't the only man who would like to know. It is the biggest problem now confronting professional politicians. Bryan, Johnson and Judge Gray are figuring on the proposition, and no one is taking a deeper interest than those republican congressmen hailing from doubtful districts who see a menace to their political futures in the latest activities of the American Federation of Labor.

That the Aldrich currency bill, which has passed the Senate, is "undesirable and impracticable," was the statement made today before the House committee on banking and currency by E. Southard Parker, President of the National Metropolitan Bank of this city and President of the Clearing House Association of the District of Columbia.

The condition of Thomas McCreary, the horseman who was shot by Representative Heffin, shows a slight improvement this morning.

MONEY FOR MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA.

A favorable report was made to the Senate yesterday afternoon by Senator Martin, of Virginia, from the committee on claims, of a bill strongly advocated by Senators Rayner and Martin for the payment of $72,000 to Maryland and $420,000 to Virginia, representing money advanced by these States in 1789 to the federal government with which to begin the erection of the Capitol building at Washington. Separate bills for this purpose were introduced by Senator Rayner for Maryland and Senator Martin for Virginia, but the two measures were by direction of the committee on claims, consolidated in the report made to the Senate yesterday. The committee recommends that the money be paid without interest.

At the time the money was advanced the federal goverment was almost without funds, while the two States, then the centers of wealth, fashion and population, had full coffers. Claims for recovery of the money have been pending many years. Senator Rayner had a claim bill before the House for this purpose when he was a member of that body years ago. A question arose as to whether the money was a gift or a loan. The records speak of the money as "advances," and this word has been legally construed as indicating a loan.

If the bill passes, $72,000 in cash will be paid into the Maryland Treasury. Virginia has already assigned her claim to the Mount Vernon Avenue Association, to be used in the construction of a national boulevard from Washington to Mount Vernon.

Governor Swanson has informed Charles A. Thurman, of Kentucky, that he would not respite Leo O. Thurman or commute his sentence. The man will hang for murder in Norfolk Friday.

Ten thousand men are out of work in Hammond and Indiana Harbor, Ind., and their families are in want. Steps are being taken by the authorities to relieve the situation by issuing supplies to the needy.

The republican State convention of South Dakota yesterday elected eight delegates to the republican national convention and instructed them to "vote for W. H. Taft and use their influence in his behalf" for the presidential nomination.

A special from Gulfport, Miss., says that eight prisoners, seven of whom are under sentence to the State penitentiary, some to serve life terms, escaped from the Harrisson county jail about 10 o'clock yesterday morning and are still at large.

Governor Crothers of Maryland has issued a proclamation declaring quarantine against the States of Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Texas, Oklahoma and California, and prohibiting the importation of any cattle from the States until November 1. This action was taken following a report made to him by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, of the existence of splenetic or southern fever among cattle in the States named.

In a sensational charge delivered to the grand jury at Frankfort, Ky., Monday evening, Circuit Court Judge Stout insisted that the grand jury begin at once to inquire into, and continue until it has ferreted to the bottom, the charges of bribery in procuring the election of a United States Senator and in the defeat of certain measures during the recent session of the general assembly. "It was a common rumor, and commoner street talk, during the session," said Judge Stout, "that bribery was rampant."

A dispatch from New York says, Mme. Anna Gould last night authorized the statement that she has no intention of marrying at present, and that she is not now engaged to any one. The statement was made public by Tyler Morse, a close friend of the Gould family, and at whose home in the Hotel St. Regis Mme. Gould was recently taken ill while visiting Mrs. Morse. Prince de Sagan was at the St. Regis yesterday where Mme. Gould has a suite. He lunched at the St. Regis with Mme. Gould and the Tyler Morses, and after lunch went out in an automobile with Mme. Gould.

Returns from the local option elections in Illinois up to 9 o'clock last night show that Springfield, Freeport, Bloomington, Danville, Jolliet, Monmouth, Aurora, Elgin, Sterling and Kankakee voted in favor of saloons, and that Rockford, Decatur and Dixon voted against saloons. A sweeping republican victory at Chicago, gave Mayor Busse's administration complete and undisputed possession of the city hall. The days victories converted a democratic majority of two in the city council into a republican majority of eighteen. Springfield, the capital of the State, voted in favor of the saloons by 1,800 majority.

A delegation of citizens composing a vigilance committee called upon Editor Smith, of the Mitchell County Record, at Bakersville, N. C., yesterday and ordered him to leave town within 24 hours. The charges against Smith were not made public. He was threatened with being driven out of town in a more vigorous fashion if he refused to leave within the specified time. He complied with the order of the town committee. Editor Smith is sixty-five years old. His newspaper was taken in charge by the vigilance committee and the politics of the paper changed from democratic to republican. Smith's whereabouts is not known, nor is it known whether he will make an effort to recover his newspaper plant.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The first two hours of the session were consumed by a debate on extravagance in the army expenditures, precipitated by Senator Hale, who attacked Secretary Taft.

Several Senators criticized the Secretary of War for his alleged policy looking to an increase of the army. Senator Burkett charged Senator Hale with "lambasting and lampooning" the secretary, who was a candidate for the republican nomination for president.

Bills to provide for an addition to the court house of the District of Columbia and to reimburse police pensioners for sums withheld from their pensions, owing to deficiencies in the fund, were passed.

Several bills of local interest to the District were introduced or reported. The fortifications appropriation bill was considered and passed.

After a brief executive session the Senate adjourned, out of respect for the memory of the late Representative Brick, of Indiana.

The Senate adjourned until tomorrow and on that day will take another adjournment until Monday of next week. This programme was arranged by the republican leaders for the reason that there are not now on the calendar any measures that are regarded as of a pressing character and which are likely to be enacted this session.

The House, in committee of the whole, considered the District appropriation bill under the five minutes rule. The bill was practically completed, and will be finally acted upon today.

Representative Overstreet reported to the House the death of Representative Abraham Lincoln Brick, of the Thirteenth Indiana district. Resolutions of regret were adopted, and at 4:05 the House took a recess until 11:30 today.

Virginia News.

As a result of the efforts of Congressman W. A. Jones, all of the steamers on the Rappahannock river under the present schedule are carrying United States mail.

By a vote of 80 to 54 yesterday Culpeper refused to permit licensing of saloons. There are three bar-rooms at Culpeper, paying a license of $3,000. After May 1 the entire county will be "dry."

Unofficial returns from the local option election held yesterday in Stonewall district, Shenandoah county, show that the district will go "dry" by a safe majority. This will close the only distillery in the county, and make the whole county "dry."

The wife of Mr. H. H. Powell, deputy sheriff of Roanoke county, died in Salem Monday night. Mrs. William Woody, of Roanoke, sister of Mr. Powell, went up to see her dead sister-in-law. She went into the room, and taking one look at the dead woman, fell to the floor.

The Sixth district republican convention met in Lynchburg yesterday. Resolutions were passed indorsing the administration, instructing the delegates to the national convention to vote for Taft, first, last and all the time, and pledging support to C. Bascomb Slemp for reelection as State chairman.

CONFERENCES.

The hundred and twenty-fourth annual session of the Baltimore Annual Conference, which had been meeting for the past week at Hamline Church, Washington, adjourned last night with the reading of the appointments by Bishop Cranston.

The following are among the appointments for the Washington District. Presiding elder, Rev. J. W. R Sumwalt. Alexandria, W. W. Van Arsdale; Arlington, two to be supplied; Brightwood Park, one to be supplied; Brookland, E. O. Powers; Congress Heights, H. G. Spencer; Falth and Benning, one to be supplied; Falls Church, J. E. Ames; Forestville, W. C. Harden; Garrisonville, to be supplied; Gaithersburg, to be supplied; Herndon, A. A. Bichell; Hyattsville, G. T. Weede; Kensington, T. M. West; Lanham, M. F. Lowe; Laytonsville, J. F James; Manassas, to be supplied; Montgomery, C. M. Yost; Northwest, to be supplied; Petworth, C. S. Cole; Spencerville, F. I Mumford; Anacostia, J. A. Jeffers.

Frederick District—Presiding elder, Rev. Dr. M. F. B. Rice. Berryville, to be supplied; Bloomington to be supplied; Winchester, J. W. H. Beale.

At the morning session 120 of the members voted for a time limit, and 49 voted against it.

The memorial to the General Conference from the Nebraska Annual Conference, requesting the General Conference to enact a canon against dancing, cardplaying and drinking, was referred to the delegation to the General Conference "with the approval of this conference."

A memorial from the Annual Conference of Arkansas asking the General Conference to appoint a commission to take some steps looking to a reunion of all branches of Methodism, whether Episcopal Methodism or not, was unanimously adopted.

The reading of the appointments by President Sheridan last night at Snow Hill, Md., brought to a close one of the most important sessions of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. The conference was in session for a week, and it did not end until after 11 o'clock last night, and an additional feature of the night meeting was the refusal to admit to the conference a new congregation in Alexandria, Va., known as Bethany Church, after a heated discussion and an aye-and-nay vote. The vote stood 68 to 94.

The conference after an extended and heated debate, voted, by a majority of 20, to admit to the conference the messenger from the Bethany Church, of this city. The committee to whom the matter had been referred had reported adversely to admitting J. R. Caton as representative of Bethany, the congregation of which some time ago left the Alexandria M. P. Church and were known as "insurgents."

The committee's report declared that the new church had not complied with the requirements of the church constitution.

Although Mr. Caton was admitted as a messenger, the church he represented, Bethany, was refused admittance to the conference.

The committee on statistics reported 26,377 members in full standing, 292 churches, 106 parsonages. Church property is valued at $1,286,828. Parsonages are valued at $250,675. There has been an appreciable advance along every line, which is very gratifying to the conference.

Among the appointments were the following: Alexandria, G. I. Humphreys; Fairfax, R. E. Harrison; Fawn Grove, S. B. Treadway; Potomac, C. M. Zepp.

MISS KEITH MARRIED.

Miss Juliet Chilton Keith, eighteen years old, daughter of Judge James Keith, president of the Virginia Supreme Court, was secretly married in Rockville, Md., on January 8, to William Oglesby Crockett, of Wytheville, a law student at Richmond College. The wedding followed an elopement from Fairfax county, where the girl was visiting, and to which point the young man followed her. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas J. Packard, of the Episcopal Church, who, under promise to the young couple, kept the matter a profound secret. Crockett, who was afraid to face the father of the girl, confided the secret to Dr. George Ben Johnson, who on Saturday told Judge Keith. Miss Keith, the bride, was prominent in Richmond society, being a debutante of the present winter. Crockett and his pretty wife will live with Judge Keith until his graduation, three years hence.

War Against Race Tracks.

Albany, N. Y., April 8.—Not in many years has there been a measure before the New York State Legislature which has attracted much attention in everysection of the State or involved the amount in a financial sense, that the two bills intended to end race tracks betting which are on order of the final passage in the Senate today. Their passage, it is admitted both by those who favor and those who oppose the bills, means the death of the throughbred breeding business in the country, and this loss will fall heaviest on Kentucky and other southern States where the breeding industry is oneof the chief factors in the prosperity of the farming community. The two bills will absolutely prohibit race track betting by making it a felony to record a bet. If passed it is announced the big racing associations in the State will run off the fixed stake events this year and then abandon the game. If passed all of the really great studs of Kentucky will be transplanted to England and France where the "sport of kings" still flourishes. At 12.30 o'clock today it seems that the anti-race track gambling bill will be lost. At 1:50 the Senate adjourned until 2 o'clock. The entire time had been taken up with argument and no action had been taken. Every member save one was in his seat.

Senator Fancher, of Cattarugus county, whose absence prevented the passage of the anti-race track bills, appeared at the Capitol at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and will vote for the bills. His vote is believed to complete the twenty-six necessary to pass measure.

An effort was made to kidnap Fancher, it is alleged, and keep him away, but he entirly outwitted those assigned to the task and came in smiling. He said: "I am going to vote for the bills. You may say that with absolute certainty."

Unemployed Demand Work.

Chicago, April 8.—Denied work both at the City Hall and the Court House and unable to gain admission to either building, 300 foreigners, many of whom has eaten nothing for three days, lined up in front of both buildings on Washington street today and refused to disporse when ordered by the police to do so. They expressed their determination to remain in front of the building until they starved unless given work. Only when 50 policemen, armed with night sticks, threatened to club them did the men disperse.

A committee of the men waited upon President Bussee, of the county board, and demanded work. They were all facing starvation, they declared. They had not been employed for months, and many had touched no food for days.

Bussee told them the county could give them no work, and they were ordered out of the building. They tried to enter the City Hall, but the police barred them.

R. Romadi, leader of the men, then marched them in front of the buildings and defied the police.

"You can shoot us, or beat us, or kill us. We starve here," cried Romadi. He also told the police that John Gorsh, whom he called "the big boss" of the unemployed, was organizing 2,000 more unemployed foreigners to join the crowd in front of the City Hall and demand work. These had not appeared at noon.

A riot call was sent in at 11 o'clock and 50 policemen armed with night sticks dispersed the crowd.

China and Japan.

Pekin, April 8.—The negotiations began yesterday between Japanese Minister Baron Hayashi and the Chinese government for a settlement of the many disputes between Pekin and Tokio seem unlikely to come to anything. The baron is so unyielding in his demands that the government officials in consultation with him have almost openly expressed the opinion that he would prefer an armed clash to a settlement and appears determined to drive China beyond the point of endurance.

In several of the leading cities the people's tone is becoming generally anti-foreign and many Europeans and Americans in the interior are sending their families to the coast, and extra guards are being posted about the legations as a precaution against disorders.

China is inclined by the United States attitude in Manchuria to take a stiffer line of policy than heretofore.

Wholesale Infanticide.

Seville, Spain, April 8.—Suspected of murdering eighteen of their own children, the anarchist Molina, and Francesca Ferrara, with whom he had lived for twenty-nine years, have been arrested here on a charge of wholesale infanticide. A mob made a desperate attempt to lynch the couple when they were arrested, and the police saved their lives with the greatest difficulty. The arrest followed the discovery of fragments of the skeltons of several infants in the house Molina and the woman occupied. A search revealed a small cemetery in the cellar and other graves were found in the garden adjoining. The police think some of the children were even buried alive. The couple have had twenty-two children in the twenty-nine years of their residence together, and it is thought only four of them survive.

New York Democrats.

New York, April 8.—Information coming from the inner circles of Tammany Hall today includes the statement that the organization slate for the "big four" to represent the democracy of New York in the national convention at Denver has been completed, and that Patrick McCarren, of Kings county, has been eliminated despite promises made a month ago that he was to be included. Alton B. Parker, Stuyvesant Chanler, W. J. Connors and Charles Murphy are said to have been selected. This delegation has no great weakness for William Jennings Bryan, however. It is certain that no effort will be made to instruct the delegation. An impression prevails that the majority of the New York delegates will favor Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, or Judge Gray, of Delaware, on the first ballot.

The Duke of Abruzzi.

Rome, April 8.—Refusing even a hint to the press concerning the result of yesterday's family conference relative to his engagement to Miss Katherine Elkins, the duke of Abruzzi left for Spezia today to resume command of his battleship, the Regina Elena. Every one is so well satisfied, however, that Abruzzi carried his point that the Italian press declares the marriage practically a foregone conclusion. A formal announcement of it is not expected.

Governor Hughes.

New York, April 8.—Governor Charles E. Hughes may eliminate himself from the contest for the republican nomination for president should the anti-race bills be killed at Albany today. Some time ago he announced he would not be again a candidate for governor, but would, if not nominated for president, resume the practice of law in this city. The governor has so far committed himself to the anti-racing bills that close friends of his assert today that if the bills are defeated he will not only call an extra session of the legislature to reconsider them, but that he will also announce himself as a candidate for renomination on an anti-gambling and possibly a prohibition platform. The result would absolutely shatter party lines.

Lisbon Under Martial Law.

Paris, April, 8.—Lisbon has been declared under martial law. Strong forces of troops bivouaked in the streets last night and machine guns have been mounted in the public squares so as to command the principal thoroughfares. Another assassination plot is expected. It is said that nearly 1,000 arrests have been made since Sunday.

Unofficial reports from Lisbon are that the government has greatly understated the extent of Sunday's, Monday's and Tuesday's rioting.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 8.—The market during the first hour showed a generally strong tone and prices of the majority of issues in that period made moderate gains. There were enough declines however to make the net changes irregular.

In the market late in the forenoon the room was full of talk to the effect that the Erie note extension plan would not go through, causing general declines.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, April 8.

SENATE.

The Senate was not in session today.

HOUSE.

The House today faced the task of acting on the first veto that the President has made this session of any bills presented to him by Congress for his signature.

The Savannah river dam bill, for a dam at Cherokee shoals, was sent to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce. The president contends the bill was improperly drawn.

A roll call was taken on the bill to take Commander Wm. Wilmot White from the retired list of the navy and put him on the active list, to determine if the House would pass the bill over the president's veto.

The House, by 257 to none, refused to pass the bill over the President's veto.

Another gag rule was passed by the House today, in order to make the naval appropriation bill filibuster proof.

By the rule, general debate will be in order on the bill on Friday and Saturday. It provides the time of taking a recess on Thursday, the hours of session on Friday and Saturday, and the hour of convening on Monday, so that the democrats will not have an opportunity to get a single one of their "dilatory" roll calls for three days.

The republican leaders found the demand for opportunity to debate the bill so persistent that they could not deny it.

Before all the votes adopting the rule over democratic opposition had been taken Messrs. Dalzell, DeArmond, Sherman and Williams spoke.

The effect of the filibuster was shown when Democratic Chieftain Williams referred to Mr. DeArmond, in yielding to him, as "the gentleman from Missouri," the first time he has used that title before Mr. DeArmond's name since the two met in a fist fight on the floor of the House early in the session.

Mr. DeArmond spoke of the rule as taking away the constitutional rights of the minority. He said the country would hold the republicans responsible for failing to pass remedial legislation.

Mr. Williams took an opportunity to reply to Mr. Dalzell's speech the other day when the Pennsylvanian called Williams' filibuster idiotic, asinine and disgraceful for a full grown man. He denied he was angry with Dalzell or had acted foolish. "When I get angry, it is with Sir John Falstaff republican floor leader Payne," remarked Williams. "It is never with his page."

Mr. Williams said he always dealt with the captain, not the lieutenant, and added Mr. Dalzell had never had a command in Congress or in Pennsylvania.

"I would rather be a doorkeeper in the House of the Lord than a dweller in the tents of wickedness," retorted Mr. Dalzell.

Mr. Fitzgerald demanded that the rule be divided.

The Speaker acknowledge the justice of the demand and the taking of three roll calls, each half an hour long, was begun.

The first "substantive proposition," carried by 146 to 126, but, on arising vote the second was defeated by 70 to 65.

"The gentleman from New York makes a point of no quorum," shouted the Speaker before the republican floor leader could get his jaws to work. The doors were shut to keep the members coraled and the sergeant-at-arms sent out to bring in the members.

SCENE IN COMMITTEE ROOM.

Brandished fists and angry words brought to a sudden termination a meeting yesterday of the House committee on the election of the president, and incidentally prevented a favorable report upon the bill to make public all campaign contributions. That there was not a fight was due to the fact that two republican members, James Francis Burke, of Pittsburg, and Representative Diekema, of Michigan, discreetly but hurriedly withdrew from the committee room. When the committee met there were only three republicans present and five democrats, finding themselves in the majority, decided at once to report the bill requiring publication of campaign contributions without taking the trouble to read it.

The democratic members made it quite apparent that they feared delay would permit other republican members of the committee to be sent for, and that this would deprive them of control, therefore they must act hastily. Mr. Burke protested against the action taken, declaring it to be an indecent outrage. Mr. Diekema made a similar declaration, and they were immediately challenged respectively by Messrs. Lassiter and Rucker. Mr. Lassiter, it is said, advanced upon Burke waiving his clenched fists and threatening the Pittsburg man with annihilation or worse. Mr. Burke bethought himself of an engagement outside. In the meantime Mr. Rucker had advanced upon Mr. Diekema whowent out to talk the situation over with Mr. Burke. Neither of them went back. The withdrawal of these two members deprived the committee of a quorum, and thus brought the meeting to an end.

The above report was denied today.

Chairman Gaines (rep. W. Va) and Mr. Hardwick (dem. Ga.) both told the House no blows were aimed, none struck and none dodged, as reported.

When they attempted to get the floor to make the statements, Minority Leader Williams and Mr. Fitzgerald objected.

"Why, a little bloodshed does not reflect on his representative capacity," exclaimed Mr. Fitzgerald.

"The chair believes it might," replied the Speaker, and Mr. Gaines was heard for a minute. Mr. Hardwick followed.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I brought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

MASONIC BANQUET.

As had been anticipated the banquet last night of Mount Vernon Chapter, No. 14, Royal Arch Masons, was a most enjoyable affair. Armory Hall, where the members and their lady guests assembled had been beautifully and tastefully decorated and nothing had been omitted which could in any way have added to the pleasure of those present.

Covers were laid for 400. The tables were arranged in the shape of a gridiron, and were decorated with cut flowers, trailing vines and banquet lamps.

Representatives J. Thomas Heflin, of Alabama, and W. C. Adamson, of Georgia, were to have been the principal speakers, but they were unable to be present. Their places, however, were taken by Representatives James L. Lloyd, of Missouri, and John L Burnett, of Alabama.

Mr. J. E W. Timberman, High Priest of Mount Vernon Chapter, presided, and acted as toastmaster.

After the assembling of the company and when they had taken their places at the tables, Rev. E. V. Regester, presiding elder of the Washington District of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and chaplain of Mount Vernon Chapter, invoked the blessing, after which the feast proceeded.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church were the caterers, and a number of young ladies acted as waitresses.

The following was the menu: Oyster cocktail, celery, salted almonds, olives, deviled crabs, rolls, pickles, chicken salad, ice cream, strawberries, assorted cakes, cheese, crackers, coffee, and fruit.

After the discussion of the collation the company was called to order when Hon. J. L. Burnette, Congressman from Alabama, was introduced. The trend of his remarks was mostly in reference to the women of the south during the four years civil war. He graphically pictured their heroism and self-denial during the conflict, and his speech was greatly enjoyed.

He was followed by Hon. J. T. Lloyd, Congressman from Missouri. His speech was equally thrilling. He called attention to three words—the prettiest in the English language—"mother, wife and daughter." He was heartily applauded.

Rev. Mr. Regester was the next speaker. Like those who had preceded him, his remarks were in reference to the ladies. He handled his subject in his usual masterly manner, giving utterance to a number of original and pretty thoughts.

At a late hour the company adjourned greatly pleased with the evening's enjoyment.

Representatives Lloyd and Burnett came to Alexandria on the special car Mount Vernon of the electric railway, escorted by a committee composed of Messrs. J E W. Timberman, Charles H. Callahan, Page Waller, Samuel P. Fisher, J. Johnston Greene and John G Graham.

Representative Dolliver had been invited to the banquet, but he was unable to be present.

DEATH OF REV. J. B. PERRY.

Rev. J. B Perry, formerly rector of St. Andrew's Church, Richmond, and father of Frank S. Perry, assistant district attorney of the District of Columbia who is now confined to Garfield Hospital with typhoid fever, died in Natchez, Miss., yesterday. Mrs. Perry and her daughter, Miss Emily Perry, were summoned to Washington, about a week ago, because of the serious condition of Mr. Perry. They left there today for Natchez. Dr. Perry died suddenly. When Mrs. Perry and her daughter left home Dr. Perry apparently was in the best of health. The son, while his condition is somewhat improved, has not been advised of his father's death.

Dr. Perry was rector of St. Andrew's Church, Washington, for about five years. Four years ago he accepted the pastorate of the Trinity Episcopal Church, at Natchez. He was a native of South Carolina.

Mr. Perry was a graduate of the Episcopal Theological Seminary near this city and married Miss Fannie Sprigg, daughter of Rev. D. F. Sprigg, of this city, who for many years was rector of Grace Church and editor and owner of the Southern Churchman

THE LATE P. H. DEIS.

The funeral of the late Philip H. Deis, who died in Washington Monday evening, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence. The interment will be at Oak Hill Cemetery. Mr. Deis was both inventor and manufacturer, and was a prominent resident of the southeast section of Washington. He was born in in Canal Dover, Ohio, on January 28 1852. For twelve years he was president of the Deis-Bisman-Kurtz Company, a large furniture company, of Canal Dover. In 1892 he was made president of the Deis Manufacturing Company of New Alexandria. In recent years Mr. Deis had devoted his time developing an improvement to water and oil raising pumps, which he invented thirty-five years ago. Several years ago he was made vice president of the Deis Pump Company, which was formed in Washington. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary H. Deis; a daughter, Mrs. John W. Steward, and a son, Rev. John H. Deis, assistant rector of St. Mark's Episcopal of Washington.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Westbound train number No. 133, on the Piedmont division of the Southern Railway struck and killed a white man a short distance north of the Potomac freight yards about five o'clock yesterday afternoon. The body was turned over to Undertaker Wheatley and was brought to his establishment in this city. No one was able to identify the unfortunate man. He was apparently about thirty-five years of age and wore a beard and mustache. His clothes were those of a laborer and his features indicate that he was either a Greek or an Italian. The man's skull was crushed.

Engineer Lunsford, when some distance away, saw the man on the northbound track walking toward this city. When the train was within a few yards of him the stranger deliberately walked in front of the approaching train, with the result given above.

The inquest was conducted by Dr. Ashton, of Alexandria county, and after the jury had heard all the evidence they brought in a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by being struck by a Southern Railway train through no fault of the crew of the same.

THE ASIA AT BALTIMORE.

With a record for 44 years plying the seas the Russion bark Asia was towed into port Monday by the tugboat Wm. H. Yerkes, jr., from Alexandria, where she discharged a cargo of bones from the river Plata. Forty-four years last month she was launched from the shipyard of W. Doxford & Sons, Sunderland, England, as the bark Emile. She later became the Antrim, and again changed her name to Asia, under which she comes to Baltimore to to load a cargo of lumber for Rosario with option of other South American ports. Built of iron, the Asia looks as proud as any of her sail companions that do not approximate her age by over a quarter of a century. She is 978 tons gross register, 190 feet long, 33 feet beam and 21 feet depth of hold. J. Janson, of Mariehamn, Russia, is owner and Captain Bjorkman is master of the venerable craft.—[Balt. Sun.

U. D. C.

The Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp held their regular meeting last night in Confederate Veterans' Building. The meeting was well attended and interesting throughout. The members of this organization are actively engaged in getting ready for the "sale" and "musical entertainment," to be held, in the building on the afternoon and evening of April 23rd, the proceeds of which will be used in the painting of the exterior of Confederate Veterans' Building. Many beautiful fancy articles have been contributed to the sale, and it is requested by the committee in charge that all such articles as are promised will be sent in, at as early a date as possible.

MYSTERIOUS FIRE.

Early last night fire was discovered in a second-story room of the residence of Mr. Edward Nalls, northeast corner of Gibbon and Fairfax streets. An alarm was sounded and the department was soon at work. The room in which the fire was raging is used by Mrs. Nalls as a dress-making room, and the combustible nature of the contents rendered it impossible to save a number of dresses, dry goods, &c. The fire, however, was confined to the room in which it originated. The loss will reach several hundred dollars. The house, which belongs to Miss Lucy Graves, was insured. The origin of the fire is unknown.

AVERSE TO BRYAN.

Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, has sent a communication to a New York paper which has been denouncing W. J. Bryan. Dr. Fisher says:

"Pardon a busy Baptist preacher for taking enough of your time to tell you how thoroughly and heartily he agrees with you in your opposition to Bryan and Bryanism. We had better have no candidate at all than suffer another overwhelming defeat under Bryan. It is the sheerest folly to attempt another campaign with W. J. Bryan as the nominee."

PHOSPHATE ROCK

The steamer Wilhelmina, with 3,000 tons of phosphate rock, left Port Tampa, Fla., last Sunday for this port. The steamer is expected to arrive here the latter part of this week. She is consigned to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company. The Wilhelmina brought a cargo of phosphate rock to the same company last fall.

ELECTRICAL FIRE SIGNAL.

The danger signal designed and patened by the Pettey Electrical Indicator Signal Co. Inc., of this city, worked admirably again last night when the alarm was turned in and highly demonstrated its value and usefulness in time of fire, as a preventive of collisions between fire apparatus, street cars, vehicles etc.

VERY FEW SHAD.

Notwithstanding the fact that the fishing season is on us the gillers drifting nets off this city are catching very few shad, although the vessel running fish from White House Landing reports good catches at that place.

We are brim full of spring novelties for man, woman and child. See our line of low shoes. J. A. Marshall & Bro. 422 King street.

BETHANY CHURCH.

As will be seen by the proceedings of the M. P. Conference in Snow Hill, Md., yesterday, Mr. J. R. Oston was admitted as a messenger from Bethany Church in this city, but the conference refused to admit the church into their conference. What the result of this action will be is not known nor will it be till a meeting of the congregation of Bethany Church is held which, it is understood, will be at early day.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APR. 8, 1903.

She Conquered the Germans.

In the Franco-German war the French hospital at Vendome was in charge of Mme. Coralie Cahen, one of the most noted nurses of the time There, aided by two nurses and several Christian Sisters of Mercy, she received thousands of French and German soldiers. When the Prussians occupied Vendome they wished to hold the hospital and plant on it the German flag. But, warned of the enemy's intentions, Mme. Cahen early one January morning visited the Prussian general, who, surrounded by his staff, was about to seize the building.

"Sir," she exclaimed, "we have received your wounded and nursed them as though they were our own. We will continue to do so, but we will remain in a French hospital. We will not have it converted into a German hospital."

"Madame," was the reply, "we are masters."

"In the town it may be; here, no!" was the answer. "We are protected by the Red Cross and the French flag You have no right to touch either the one or the other."

She conquered, and from that day the utmost admiration was openly evinced for her by the Germans.

A Wise Critic.

Francisque Sarcey was for forty years a figure of great prominence in French literary life. As a critic of the drama he was looked upon as one having authority, and praise from him meant success to the struggling playwright.

His criticisms were honest, fearless and independent, and it is remembered of him that he refused the honor of belonging to the French academy lest he should come under obligation to favor the plays written by other members.

Sarcey's good sense was often put to the test. One day a friend came rushing into his room waving a paper.

"What is the matter?" inquired the critic.

"Here's some one," cried the other, "who has been calling you an 'imbecile' in print! Are you going to challenge him?"

Sarcey smiled. "Certainly not," he replied. "I owe him my thanks. The public will soon forget the word 'imbecile' and will only remember having read my name."

Got Even With Dickens.

When Charles Dickens was in Washington he met one morning on the steps of the capitol a young congressman from Tennessee whom the great novelist had offended by his bluntness That morning Dickens was in great good humor. "I have," said he, "found an almost exact counterpart of Little Nell."

"Little Nell who?" queried the Tennesseean.

Dickens looked him all over from head to foot and from foot to head before he answered, "My Little Nell."

"Oh," said the Tennesseean, "I didn't know you had your daughter with you!"

"I am speaking of the Little Nell of my story, 'The Old Curiosity Shop,' sir," retorted Dickens, flushing.

"Oh," said the imperturbable Tennesseean, "you write novels, do you? Don't you consider that a rather trifling occupation for a grownup man?"

Chinese Laundry Tickets.

It is not generally known that the Chinese laundry system of ticketing a bundle of soiled clothes is based on the many gods and goddesses of the laundry.

The Chinese laundryman at the beginning of each week makes out a batch of checks in duplicate, to be used as wash tickets. He selects the name of some god or goddess or of some object, as the sun, the moon or stars. To this name he prefixes a number, as "Moon No. 1," "Moon No. 2," and so on. In the space between the two legends—for the signs are repeated—he has his own name, as, for instance, Wong Lee.—Harper's Weekly.

Tenure of Office Act.

The tenure of office act, passed by congress in February, 1867, during its bitter fight with President Andrew Johnson, was a bill limiting the powers of the president in removals from office. Among other things it took from the president the power to remove members of his cabinet except by permission of the senate, declaring that they should hold office "for and during the term of the president by whom they may have been appointed and for one month thereafter, subject to removal by and with the consent of the senate." The president vetoed the bill, but it was passed over his veto.—New York American.

The Standard Size.

"Here's another alleged humorous article about coal by that new jokesmith of ours," said the editor's assistant. "Shall I use it?"

"What size is it?" asked the editor.

"Oh, chestnut size, of course!"—Philadelphia Press.

Making Sure.

"I pay as I go," declared the pompous citizen.

"Not while I'm running these apartments," declared the janitor. "You'll pay as you move in."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Wisdom of the Seer.

Young Lady—Will the young man I am engaged to make a good husband? Fortune Teller—It's up to you to make a good husband of him. All bad husbands are self made.—New York World.

Nothing is so oppressive as symmetry because symmetry is boredom, and boredom is the basis of melancholy and yawning despair.—Victor Hugo.
